

WELCOME TO OUR
Gracewell Newsletter
Handmade. Heart-led. Family-grown.

December at Gracewell
A MONTH OF MAKING, MILESTONES, & MOMENTUM

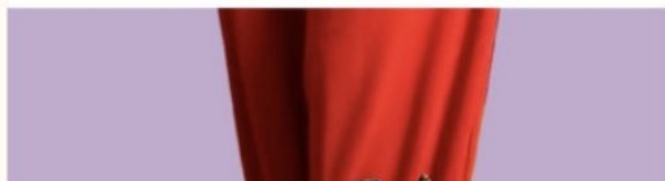

December was a deeply meaningful month at Gracewell Studio, one rooted in creativity, connection, and purposeful growth. What began as a season of making unfolded into a celebration of community, craftsmanship, and the quiet power of handmade work finding its place in the world.

This month marked several exciting firsts. Our December online accessory collections were met with such enthusiasm that we nearly sold out, a moment of gratitude we don't take lightly. We also hosted our very first holiday fair, where we experienced the warmth and support of community in the most tangible way. Alongside these milestones, we're proud to share that Gracewell is now officially Gracewell Arts LLC. This step felt symbolic and grounding, a way of honoring the care, creativity, and heart that have shaped this studio from the very beginning.

Inside this newsletter, you'll find highlights from our first holiday fair, an introduction to the designer behind the Heritage Line, a preview of our upcoming Artist Spotlight, and a glimpse of ideas that began as personal gifts and are already blooming into future Gracewell offerings.

Thank you for being here, for supporting handmade, and for growing with us. We're so glad you're part of this journey.

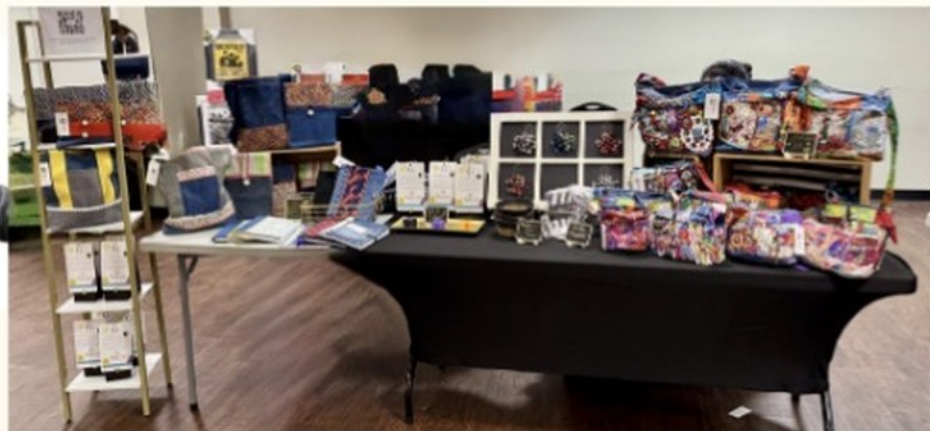

Pop-Up Alert

HANDMADE. HEARTFELT. IN THE WILD.

OUR FIRST HOLIDAY FAIR

We hosted our first ever vendor experience at a local holiday fair this December. Learning what it means to prepare, pack, and show up with intention. We connected with fellow artists, shared stories, and felt the strength of handmade community in a very real way. This experience stretched us, grounded us, and reminded us why creating in community matters.

From the Studio Table

WHEN GIFTS BECOME IDEAS

THIS SEASON BROUGHT US BACK TO THE JOY OF MAKING FOR THE PEOPLE WE LOVE.

We created handmade holiday gifts for our family, letting ideas unfold organically, without timelines or expectations. These pieces weren't planned products, but they became sparks.

What began as personal gifts quietly opened doors to new forms, textures, and possibilities, many of which are already blooming into future Gracewell offerings.

Meet Monina

A Puerto Rican designer with decades of experience in the fashion and design arts, Monina creates one-of-a-kind pieces that are vibrant, wearable art. The Heritage Line is a collection of upcycled cross body bags, made to inspire joy in the wearing.

The December Heritage Line sold out. Stay connected for first looks and details on the January Heritage Line collection.

Read more about Monina on the Gracewell Blog page, coming in January 2026.

Artist Spotlight

February 2026

Debra Irizarry

Our first Artist Spotlight will feature Debra Irizarry.

An artist and art therapist whose work captures the essence of the natural world through color, texture, and form. Debra's creative practice reflects both observation and presence, art shaped by experience, connection, and intention.

Her story, her art, and her voice will be shared in February, and I am so excited to introduce my sister to you.

As the year closes, we're taking a short pause to rest, reflect, and prepare for the New Year ahead. Thank you for supporting our work, believing in handmade, and growing with us. The studio is humming softly, ideas are taking root, and we're so excited to share what's coming next.

Coming Soon

NEW RELEASES, ARTIST SPOTLIGHTS, AND MORE

New Offerings on the Horizon

Designed Gently, Released Thoughtfully

We're quietly working behind the scenes on:

- New bag styles
- New sensory tools
- Virtual Reiki offerings
- Community education sessions (in person and recorded)

Details will be shared in our January newsletter.

Stay Connected

WWW.THEGRACEWELLSTUDIO.COM

Follow Us

